THE YEAR OF TOO MUCH FUN

A hasher called Cut Loose (thank you Happy) just had to kick off her GM year with that Footloose song and with a Committee brimming with talent it was TOO MUCH FUN. Sergeant Udder Idjit said it was meant to be a bit of comedic drama so propped up by our musical theatre stars Prickly Bush and Deeper O B, the year started with the new Committee tripping the light fantastic. Legends in our own minds!

The Lakeside GM's coat returned to center stage after decades in the wings and survived Circles in the snow, rain, beach, parks and pubs. I am happy to report an encore is possible for 2015-16 as the GM's Coat remained safely in Lakeside's hands during joint runs with Western Suburbs, a shared pub with D&E, the Ballarat Balls Up, Melbourne Ladies 2000th Run, and the AGPUs of Melbourne Men's, D&E & Melbourne Ladies.

"THE BOOK" was bound in fur thanks to our creative scribe CHEESECAKE. Why? Well if you read her run reports you will delve into the wacky world of an artist's mind .....

Lakesiders at Ballarat Balls Up

Hash Flash

Hash Flash Gargoyle knows her way around scissors, paper and paste and VOILA the Lakeside Boat Float was created. She also caught memorable moments such as Kling On and Spread On's Hash Wedding, the Xmas Beach Party, St Patrick's Day in the Park, AristoKat & Cheesecake foolishly wearing new shoes, E&B and those bagpipes and she even made the haggis look appetising. Now that's talent.

Lakeside T-shirts

Maybe because these poor souls only have very, very old T-shirts, our Haberdash, PUNCH, spent much of her year organizing fantastic new shirts for Lakesiders. A tough job, but PUNCH not only has the dance moves, she has made sure Lakesiders party in style!

Xmas Beach Party

Cocktails, a fantastic view, cocktails, an excuse to wear board shorts, cocktails, and John the entertainer, and yet more cocktails! E&B, our Social Secs, made sure we had TOO MUCH FUN at Lakeside's Xmas Party at Halfmoon Bay.

Beer, Beer Cherish the Sight

Klingon made Lakeside history the St Andrew's Day run. As if men in kilts, haggis, Scottish dancing & bagpipes weren't enough, he proposed to Flora (now Spread On). Thank ummm - all those earthly beings - that he is Grog Master so lots of toasts were enjoyed

10 Lakeside Virgin Hares deflowered

A highlight of the year was that we had 10 virgins blooded.. Thanks to Trail Master and Hare Mentor extraordinaire Kokup and Checkin Chicken Cooch the only Balls Up for the year was at Ballarat. Lakeside's catchment now means anything from Frankston to Northcote to Bulleen to Mordiallic to Preston to Box Hill to Richmond to Hawthorn to St Kilda to Williamstown to Baw Baw.....

Sergeant's Report

Another run, another 35 charges to make! This is the burden that falls to the Sergeant. At least it's better than trying to pacify lots of different egos and agendas (GM), or finding someone who likes setting trails in mid-winter (Trail Master) or collecting money from the tight arses (Hash Cash).

All in all, the sergeant's job is the least bothersome on the committee and sometimes you:

- Can get your own back on anyone that annoys you.
- Overhear conversations and twist and turn them to make charges
- Can bend the truth
- Quote any type of figure and statistics

Some hashers seem to be able to avoid all charges either by keeping well away from me, or keeping a very low profile. Other hashers are picked upon because they can't keep quiet (you know who you are) and it is always hard to ignore them.

What makes a good sergeant? This is one of the mysteries of the natural world, but it does help to have:

- A thick skin,
- A loud voice, and
- No fear of standing up in front of an audience.

I would like to give special thanks to three hashers for their contributions during the year. First are Barbie's Box and Deeper for providing a rich source of charges and finally to Cheesecake for ensuring that I get my picture on 67.5% of all run reports.

Upon reflection, I think that I'll miss the job, I wish my successor a never ending source of charges.

Social Secs' Report

Cut Loose said she wanted it to be a year of too much fun and she's lived up to her word, starting right at the beginning with rehearsals for a secret, surprise flash dance routine at the AGM at which she would be handed the GM's hat and coat by outgoing GM, NickelB. What a hoot! Many thanks to the dance instructor, Prickly Bush, and our song re-writer, Deeper O.B.

Then we had cocktails at the Christmas party and another little dance routine, ditto thanks above as well as to our resident cross-dresser, Udder.

And of course the Balls Up in Ballarat! Our grand entrance into the ball with our Boat Float, whatever that was all about, and our very own Tiger Moth who won the Belle of the Ball!

Can't forget that Cheesecake stole the salad of the lunchtime client at the Half Moon SLC on the morning after the Christmas Party, and then tried to hide her crime by passing it on to Cut Loose who passed it on to me—the innocent receiver of stolen goods.

As Social Secs, I also felt compelled to represent Lakeside at other international and national events during the hash year such as Brussels Beer Hash extravaganza in August 2014, Busselton Nash Hash and Rutherglen Winery Bike Hash in March 2015, and Canberra Bike Hash's Kozzie to Coast in April 2015. All in a year's work.

Good luck to the next Social Secs.

During 2014/15 Lakeside runs trended more to the South East of the 'Heartland', but in 2014/15 they were spread from Preston to Frankston. Only two runs were set in the Lakeside 'Heartland' area, including the 31st Anniversary run, where the Grand Prix displaced us from Albert Park lake.

There were twelve themed runs for the year including the Grand Final, Oktoberfest, Halloween, Melbourne Cup Hat run, St. Andrew's Day, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, Australia Day, Waitangi Day, St. Patrick's Day, Easter Bunny and a 70's themed run. Thanks to the respective hares for putting a little extra effort into each of these runs and also to the hashers who got into the spirit of things to produce some memorable runs.

Ten virgin hares lost their innocence, aided and abetted by several Lakeside mentors. They were Sweaty Box (Point Post), Hooray C. O. (Astro), Swamp Rat (Prince), Mutha Trucka & Blood Sucka (Deeper), Swingers & Pegmatite (Kokup), Barbies Box & Story Teller (E&B) and Big Ears. A lot of effort was put into setting each of these runs and they were much appreciated by hashers. Thank you to all virgins & mentors and big things are expected of you in the future.

The Mt Baw Baw runs were another success story with the best back check of the year on the first run and a snow run on the second day with the shortest ever on back at 10m.

The shortest run of the year was about 5.5km set by Point Post and the longest run of 13km was set by Cooch with a massive 23 checks and 10 onbacks. Some other notable runs included Behind Bars' run in Fitzroy which passed 18 pubs without a drink stop and Cheesecake & Colours run in Holmesglen with the longest on back at 200m. They also set a 70's themed run from the Roo Baa which had two 'triple on backs' and a great circle attended by 42 hashers. E&B maintained the high standard of haggis runs with a Fig 8 run covering some rough territory in inner Melbourne and runners were again entertained by the dulcet tones of bagpipes along the way.

Astro & Cut Loose tried to set the hottest run from Tulip St, but were well and truly trumped by Udder Idjit and Gargoyle whose Hampton run started in 35 degree heat and finished with a spectacular thunder and lightning show over the bay. Lethal set a tricky run in Carnegie that disoriented just about everyone.

The RA earned his keep this year with only four wet runs, including his own from the Riversdale pub, which resulted in the runners being out for the longest time for the year at 1hr 40min. Another useless bit of information is that most hares prefer to set runs in an anticlockwise direction, representing 60% of all runs set. There were two Figure 8 runs, being E&B and Mutha Trucka and Blood Sucka.

Runs throughout the year were again set to a high standard and all hares should be congratulated. There were some tricky On Backs and well thought out checks, so the pack often returned home as a close group. Surprisingly, and very unhashlike, there were few stuff ups, hardly any dummy spits and no one got lost.

Finally, the 43 different Lakeside hares spread over 52 runs (excluding Committee and other hash runs), meant the run setting load was spread reasonably well. Klingon and Prickly Bush set the most runs for the year, closely followed by Cut Loose and all only slightly ahead of the rest of us.

I have enjoyed the last two years as trail master and thank you to all hares for contributing to this particularly successful hash year. It's now time for someone else to hang around and hassle you.

A Twisted Coat Tale

1. Once upon a time there was a vain Emperor who was addicted to ordering new clothes. Each outfit had to be more attractive and of finer material than the last. Finally his poor tailor could no longer source even more exquisite materials, to outdo himself with his expert workmanship. What to do? He pretended to dress the Emperor in His newly sewn and most beautiful suit ever: a non-existent and invisible suit! The tailor convinced Him, before the

2. The proud Emperor strutted outside only to be greeted by the derisive laughter of his people. The Joker, Nickel B, laughed himself silly! They saw He was only wearing His Birthday Suit! His Empress, Cut Loose G.M., also saw through that ruse. She decided to take matter into her own hands!

3. Her Serene Highness called upon Her trusty Haberdash, Punch, and all Her courtiers, declaring: "It is our pleasure to create a wonderful new garment to celebrate our forthcoming 30th Anniversary."

4. Their noble artist, Ray Smith, and dashing handsome Prince Bovine Breeder from the Kingdom of EmbroidMe Dandenong, waved a magic wand. "Poof!" - a beautiful blue T shirt suddenly appeared! This magic shirt enabled the wearer to see the light and run as fast as lightning! The Emperor and Cut Loose revelled in Their newly found athletic ability and, so inspired, They invented Royal

5. They decreed: "All the lucky 39 Members of Lakeside may wear this wonderful shirt in memory of Our 30th Anniversary. And henceforth Punch will assist all Lakesiders to select sports gear of their desire, from Bovine's Breeder's magic Book Of Spells.....er, Garments.

6. The Empress was so pleased with these Pearls of Wisdom, declaring: "Let's have a Feast Day each week and everyone will look tres chic". The people loved their magic blue shirts. Many requested more in lovely bright colours from Punch and Bovine.

7. Now each Wednesday night Lakesiders run amok, frightening the horses and scaring small children. They feast at the round table, charge their glasses and toast the recipients of Significant Run Shirts. The Joker makes sure they all have lots of fun and every Critter lived Fitter ever

8. Congratulations to all Lakesiders who received award garments for significant Runs. Many thanks to the Committee and to Cut Loose for donating the GM's tails coat. Thank you Andrew, Janice, Jodie and Charles from EmbroidMe Dandenong, and to everyone who ordered the 68 garments and socks supplied during the year.

Scribe's Report—

Tips on how to write a good run report:

Cheesecake

1. National Stereotyping.

Very non-PC but bloody useful for a scribe wanting to extract the piss from New Zealanders on February's Waitangi Day run. The Land of the Long White Cloud and Short Stunted Vowel Sounds is filled with lovable sheep - as if that's not enough to laugh at, they lost the Cricket World Cup to Australia. Again. (Run reports 1648, 1657)

Then we have St Andrews Day in November. Apart from Billy Connolly, the Scots have no sense of humour, they hold grudges for 100s of years and they don't plan to laugh at themselves anytime soon. So we will. (RR 1637)

Scots and New Zealander send-ups are seasonal, but Pommy bashing can be done year-round. They think they're good at cricket; they think Spotted Dick is food; they think soccer is football. 'Separation from reality' or 'Delusional Disorders' are irrational beliefs, held with a high level of conviction, that are highly resistant to change even when the delusional person is exposed to forms of proof that contradict the belief. (RR 1631)

2. Don't limit yourself to the facts

If the run, the venue or the hares aren't interesting enough, just make it up. It's called creative non-fiction and authors have won awards for it. However, might be wise to put all your assets in the spouse's name and open a Swiss bank account, - just in

3. Ignore the actual run

Over 31 years, Lakeside hares have set 1669 runs, mostly in the inner south-east. There's no such thing as a new hash trail, just faulty hash memories. I figure just about every trail has been written up before, maybe years earlier by some Lakeside hash scribe or on-sec now living in a nursing home. So forget the run and write about what interests you

Udder wearing spots

4. Feel free to pick on people

Victimising cranky old hash farts is extremely satisfying. Our favourite, GG, had a bit of a hash hiatus this year, so Udder stepped up and took it like a man, or at least an English-man prone to cross-dressing. (RR1622, 1623, 1644, 1645, 1646,

Quick Sherry Cheesecake

As if she knows how to make a cheesecake—call us if you want the recipe...

Crust:
1½ cups crushed shredded wheatmeal biscuits
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
(125 ml) melted butter

Filling:
500 g (1 lb) cream cheese
½ cup sugar
3 eggs
4 tablespoons sherry
2 teaspoons lemon juice

Together the crushed biscuits, sugar, cinnamon and melt on the bottom a 23-cm (9-inch) spring form pan. Chill until the cream cheese, then beat in the sugar until the mixture is smooth. Add the eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add the sherry and lemon juice and mix thoroughly. Pour into the prepared crust and bake in a 150°C (300°F) oven for 1 hour. Turn off the heat and leave the cheesecake in the pan until cool. Top with whipped cream and sprinkle with nutmeg.

Serves 8.

It's interesting the snippets which hashers share. Gargoyle, who's getting on a bit and has dodgy eyesight, told me that Udder doesn't want her to wear glasses. He thinks that if she relies on wearing glasses, it'll only cause her vision to deteriorate further.

Checkin' Chicken Report

We have 48 members at the end of the financial year which is a good 13 more than a year ago. The GM must be doing something right.

Financial results are not yet finalised for the year ending 30 June but the following are pretty right. They are for 20 May 15 projected forwards to the end of June:

- $4200 cash and in the bank. This is $700 less than at the start of the year
- Results assume the AGM run will break even
- Our one raffle made an $81 profit – yippee!
- $970 spent from hash cash for circle drinks at pubs. BBQ venue circles funded by the Grog Master
- $258 for awards to members for significant runs, excluding haberdash items.
- Haberdash spent $854 on a free t-shirt for members – the blue one, remember?
- Other Haberdash expenditure was $3000 (Including for awards) with income to date of $2034
- $53 to register our club with Consumer Affairs Victoria. They also receive our annual financial statement detailing our income and expenditure
- Significant events included the Christmas dinner dance at a small net cost of $65, Baw Baw weekend run at no cost to the Hash, Anniversary and AGM runs.

Was happy to again collect money from all you tight wads and thanks to Astro and Gargoyle for their support when I'm swanning around out of the state.

Lubang Oz

Once upon a time, E&B owned a house in Canberra and was renovating her bathroom. Hashers and friends helped her but somehow managed to order twice as much plaster board as required. The extra boards have been cluttering up our garage for 15 years.

Then by good luck and good management, Cooch was made Checkin' Chicken two years ago. He did such a good job the first year that he was re-elected for a second. But the real win was, piece by piece, clearing the sheets of plasterboard out of the garage!

Some Lakeside hashers don't have a good record for turning up on time. I'm thinking E&B, Sweaty Box, Big Ears and sometimes AristoKat. While others sometimes think they know where the trail will go, do their own thing and get lost. I'm thinking Big Ears. While yet others can get pre-occupied with talking on the run, get distracted and fall behind. I'm thinking E&B. Where would they all be without Checkin' Chicken?!!

Cooch

At every run this year the hash had drinks and beer. At times the end of beer was near but no run ran out of beer. So it was a year of sufficient beer and for that, the grogmaster you can cheer.

Excerpts from the run report:

Coffin Box set a fast paced run through lots of lanes behind King and Lonsdale Streets, across to the Flagstaff gardens and down to the docks, around Etihad Stadium and in and out of the nooks and crannies of Docklands.

The area brought back some wonderful memories for your scribe who spent many restful years working for the Tax Office at 270 King St. There was the Kilkenny Inn on the Lonsdale/King corner, now masquerading as Goldfingers Gentlemen's club, where many a tax officer spent long to longish to very bloody long lunches.

Cut Loose put on a splendid drink stop with a champagne and ice cream concoction plus whore derves. In recognition of the Spring Racing Carnival, there were some great hats - ENB ran the entire run in a wide black straw and ostrich feather confection which must have araldite-ed to the head.

Charges included: Critter Fitter's renaming to Sweaty Box - having double the number of names than everyone else present. Heavy- No parking fines tonight, as he left his car in Kalgoorlie. Hand Cranked - left his car in a park where he may be fined. Ask Jane - ordered his meal under his real name, Tony, but did not even get his own meal. Astro - ran 13.2 ,km on a trail only 8km long.

LSH Run 1661

Colours 60th birthday run

Excerpts from Cheesecake's run report:

Colours decided to have her birthday run/walk from the Roo Bar in Centre Road with pizzas and birthday cake. Cut Loose set the walk and Cheesecake set the run. The Roo Bar turned out to be a great choice by young Colours. The host, Geoff, was really welcoming; the drinks reasonable and we had the back area entirely to ourselves, which was fortunate because we had a record crowd of 42 hashers. We went through about 20 pizzas.

Story Teller, whose family is Latvian, decided that we had to celebrate Colours' birthday the Latvian way. In Latvia, when a young lady celebrates her birthday, she undergoes the Latvian Lift - she is carried around by 10 gorgeous, tall, fit, young men. We couldn't find any of them, so Colours was hoisted on the shoulders of some creaky male hashers, whereupon we sang a Latvian birthday song. Shoulda been there - it was a scream!

Cheesecake described the run - it was the perfect length with just the right number of checks and on-backs. The scenery was memorable, the weather was balmy, the arrows were frequent and incredibly clear and a good time was had by all. This one set the benchmark high!

Cheesecake described the run - it was the

The Treaty of Waitangi in 1840 made New Zulland part of the Bretish Impire and not part of Australia, thenk hivens.

New Zulland is very dufferent! The South Wairarapa District Council doesn't worry about important stuff like the economy or world piss, but eggonises about compulsory dog micro-chupping for pitts. Working dogs don't need to be micro chupped so a Wairarapa couple, who don't like micro-chupping, are arguing that their tin Pekingese are working dogs who scare the bejesus out of the ship on their 48 hicktere ship-farm by barking at the ship from the beck of quad bikes. Now the parties are in court. If the farmers don't win they're off to the Pruvvy Council in England.

Lakeside welcomes pitts. We love running with Toffee, Harpo and Petch, although we've niver hed kuttens on a run, apart from Aristoket.

The Botenic Gardens prohibits - runners, dogs, and wheeled vehicles. So about 20 heshers raced through the gardens, with Toffee and young Kiven on his scooter close on our heels. On through South Yerra, past the police academy, down to the river and onto Melbourne High School. Then we went down market and crossed over to Richmond. Some grimy Richmond beck streets lead us to Gosch's Paddock and home past the soccer stadium.

It was a long run so thenk hivens Klungon brought the chully buns so we could hev a bier or even a sucks peck. Pointy prepared dunner with lots of salads, hem and salami.

The 6 Group Dynamics Of High-Performing Teams

A high-performance team can be defined as a group of people with specific roles and complementary talents and skills, aligned with and committed to a common purpose, who consistently show high levels of collaboration and innovation, that produce superior results. The high-performance team is regarded as tight-knit, focused on their goal and nothing else. Team members are so devoted to their purpose that they will surmount any barrier to achieve the team's goals.
